News

MCB Hawaii pays tribute to environmental warrior, Diane Drigot – Diane Drigot, who worked for more than 30 years at Marine Corps Base Hawaii, passed away Oct. 14, at the age of 65, from complications with a stem cell transplant during treatment for acute myelogenous leukemia. As the Senior Natural Resources Management Specialist, Dr. Drigot played an integral role in protecting the resources aboard MCBH and promoted a better understanding between the local community and the base.
